

PRESS RELEASE

2019 TERRE DE FEMMES INTERNATIONAL AWARD CEREMONY

Since 2001, the "Terre de Femmes" award, created at the initiative of Jacques Rocher, Honorary President of the Yves Rocher Foundation - Institut de France, has been awarded each year to women in France and abroad, to recognise their actions and their commitment to the environment.

Vandana Shiva New : International Award

NAVDANYA

Vandana promotes agroecology with her "Small Farms International" project. It aims to empower women farmers, as they play a key role in small-scale farming in India.

Prize : 10 000€

New : International Award Ruhama Getahun

INTEGRATED WOMEN'S DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION

Ruhama works on preserving biodiversity in Ethiopia. In 2016, she created an association dedicated to women's empowerment through economic development.

Prize : 10 000€

Stella Deetjen Terre de Femmes Grand Prize

BACK TO LIFE

Stella works to protect ecosystems in Nepal. She leads the fight against deforestation and poverty by promoting sustainable forest management and clean and renewable energy use.

Prize : 10 000€

Special Jury Award Yariely Ballam Ballote

P.I.M.V.S TUMBEN KUXTAL, A.C.

Yariely works to promote women's empowerment through training to preserve local knowledge of the protected "native stingless bee" species

Prize : 2 500€

Press contact:

Claire Ossart / claire.ossart@ymet.com / +33 (0)1 41 08 51 85

Follow us !