

7/10

people living on less than $1/day are women<sup>1</sup> female heads of state or government out of 192 countries<sup>2</sup>

17

Women's status in the world today

women travel

15 km

on average each day to find water in South Africa<sup>3</sup>

only

20%

of the members of environmental bodies around the world are women<sup>4</sup>

women spend

2,5x

more time than men on household tasks<sup>5</sup>

80%

of female agricultural workers in Malaysia are employed to spray pesticides without any special equipment or protection<sup>6</sup>

only

20%

of property owners around the world are women<sup>7</sup>

58%

of women surveyed report a lack of confidence in their authority, compared to 35% of men<sup>8</sup>

over 50%

of the victims of the 2004 tsunami were women<sup>9</sup>

Sources: «Celles Qui Changent le Monde» [«The Women Who Are Changing the World»] report - Fondation Yves Rocher, available on: <http://www.yves-rocher-fondation.org/la-fondation/publications/> (1) RAJA Foundation. (2) UN Women. (3) WEDO, Infographic on Gender and Climate Change. (4) WEDO, UNFCCC, Progress on Achieving Gender Balance, 2017. (5) UN Women 2015-2016. (6) WECF, Women and Chemicals. (7) FAO 2011. (8) EmpowHer Women'Act report. (9) Rachel Harris, Gender and Climate Change, 2010.